NOTICE

This is to notify all the students of MBS 4th Semester regarding the postponement of the workshop on "Dissertation Proposal Writing," that was scheduled to be organized from 20 to 23 Chaitra 2076.

In order to take prevention from Corona Virus (Covid-19), the workshop has been postponed for one month. The workshop will be organized from 20 to 23 Baishak, 2077, if the situation becomes conducive.

However, during this period, students are required to involve in the pre-workshop activities which are as follows:

1. Do preliminary literature review in the area of your interest to write dissertation.
2. Based on the literature review, select one topic for your dissertation
3. Download one best article related to your selected topic and get it printed. You have to bring this when you come to participate in the workshop.
4. To search the literature for review, it is advised to use search engines like-
<https://scholar.google.com> or any other search engines/database you are familiar with.
5. Visit "Google Classroom" recently created by Management Research Department to get workshop materials and doing interaction among students and between students and teachers. To get access to Google Classroom, open your Gmail account and click "Google apps" shown as nine dots that is at the top right corner of your Gmail account. From the drop down menu, Click "Classroom, and then click + sign and click join class. You will be asked to provide class code. Enter following code: bijahea.
